

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is simply wrong.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. Instead of honoring the
responsibilities
that come with use
of those airwaves
Sinclair has chosen
to abuse its power
in an attempt to corrupt the democratic process
and the exchange of accurate and honest information between the media and the people it is suppose
to serve.

Sinclair's actions
are a blatant violation of the public trust and
must be condemned.
Either they should
back down from their position on airing
this one sided
opinion piece, or they should have their liscense to broadcast on the public airwaves
revoked for such an obvious and over
reaching abuse of the trust placed in them by the FCC and the citizens of this country.

Sincerely,
Todd Crescitelli
